

Women's Conference & Trade Show

Celebrating Women's Strengths
May 3, 2012

Regional Centre, Vermilion

This one day conference for women provides knowledge, inspiration and opportunity for networking. With extraordinary speakers and the collective energy of more than 200 women all joining in this unique event; we will provide powerful motivation that will help you become a change-maker in your own life!

Bal Arneson is an author and star of the Food Network's Spice Goddess.

Originally from a small village in Punjab, India, Bal Arneson learned how to cook from her elders when she was just seven years old, over coals in a small clay pit. Come and hear the story that has taken her from a small village in India to a TV celebrity.

Reena Nerbas is an author, newspaper columnist and "Solutions Sleuth"

Reena writes for national websites and has contributed to Canadian Living Magazine, Home Basics, Today's Parent and as well as numerous other publications. Her energy is contagious as she shares her solutions in maintaining a green environment in all we do.

Jenni Willems is an author, entrepreneur and visionary

Chef Jenni is the founder of New Ground Café, an art and music filled local foods mecca in Birch Hills, Saskatchewan. She's received national attention for her innovative use of regional ingredients and her passion for food has drawn destination diners to the small, rural town. She will share her entrepreneurial spirit with us.
